

Please do not weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law. As a physician we have to have phones and can't turn them off when we are tired. We do not need to be awakened by telemarketers etc. when we may only have an hour or two to get sleep. I promise you there will be a significant negative reaction if the law is weakened.